Punishment Guidelines

WARNING: Content in this document may not be suitable for young children, it contains some vulgarity as examples for the different rules.

Welcome to the CodecPvP Public Punishment Guidelines! This is a very long and detailed document that will describe a lot of information that you NEED to know as a player.

Please check back frequently for document updates!

Examples in GREEN are not punishable and do not warrant a warning.

Examples in RED are punishable and may warrant a warning.

REMEMBER

These are mainly just examples, enforcement of these rules is decided by the individual staff member. If you suspect a staff member is abusing their power or punishing incorrectly then please submit a support ticket at <http://CodecPvP.com/support/helpdesk>

Note: Please note that all of the following may vary case by case depending on context. Rules and punishments are subject to change at any time at the discretion of the CodecPvP Leadership Team.

Note: Please note that punishment times are determined by the system, and depending on previous offenses, the punishment time may increase. Generally the punishment time will automatically increase with every severity.

		we don't punish players who are excited.
General Rudeness	Players being intentionally rude to any players.	"omg this server is full of noob players they suck at this game i hate them" This message is intended to make someone feel bad for the way they are playing a game. "I hate all the mods, they are abusive!" This message is intended to imply that a staff member is abusing their powers and is intended to make them feel bad. (IF YOU HAVE ACTUAL EVIDENCE OF A STAFF MEMBER ABUSING REPORT THEM AT HTTP://CODECPVP.COM/community) "Wow player123 you are an idiot, go away" This is a rude message aimed at someone to make them feel bad. "Get rekt lol" This message is intended as a joke and is not punishable.	You will be warned, if you continue with the same behavior you will be muted.
Hackusation (Accusing another player of Hacking)	Accusing someone of hacking in public chat.	"Wow you are such a hacker player123" This message is accusing someone of hacking and you may warn the player. "Lel dem hax dough" This message is a joke and is not accusing someone of hacking. "HandyKid1 > ModMan2 " This message was sent directly to a staff member and is fine.	You will be warned, if you continue with the same behavior you will be muted.
Arguing	Someone constantly contradicting what someone says. OR Someone protesting a punishment that has been given to them.	"Why was player123 banned? He didn't do anything wrong!!" "Unban player123 he didn't do anything!" "Please unban him he will never hack again!!" These messages are clearly sent in an argumentative way to try to get player123 unbanned. "I don't agree with the way that player123 was banned. He was banned by helper123 for false reasons, please help!" This message is intended to grab a staff members attention because the player feels like their friend was unfairly banned.	You will be warned, if you continue with the same behavior you will be muted.

Chat Trolling	Intentionally saying things that are meant to confuse or mislead players. Impersonation of a staff member.	“Press Alt+F4 for $150M” This is meant to cause a player to use the operation shortcut on their computer that closes the current window, thus closing their Minecraft window. “I’m a mod and I’m going to ban you!” This is meant to imply that someone who is not a mod IS one and that they will ban someone which is staff impersonation.	You will be warned, if you continue with the same behavior you will be muted.
Mini-Modding	Players who are not staff members trying to enforce the rules on people while there are staff members present. NOTE Answering questions such as “Where do I apply” is NOT Mini-Modding!	“player123 stop spamming” This message is intended to get a player to stop spamming, and is considered Mini-Modding if a staff member is present. “Ugg I hate when people spam” This message is intended to express an opinion and is not intended to get the player to stop spamming.	You will be warned, if you continue with the same behavior you will be muted.
Light Advertisement	Asking players to join a server via mentioning the servers name in general conversation. Also, advertising of Twitch / Beam channels that do not contain CodecPvP related content. Advertisement of Youtube Videos or Channels which are not directly	“Who wants to come play on Yofou with me?” This message is intended to pull players off of CodecPvP to play Yofou which is a competitor. “Come watch my video at youtube.com/thegamingtutorials3” This message is still considered light advertisement because it’s a link to a youtube channel which is not directly affiliated with CodecPvP. “Come watch Parkers twitch stream at twitch.tv/CodecPvP it’s awesome!” This message is fine because the twitch stream advertised has CodecPvP related content. “Does anyone want to play on my realm?” As realms is username based and not IP based, this would not be considered advertisement.	You will be warned, if you continue with the same behavior you will be muted.

	affiliated with CodecPvP. (Affiliation means YT or Youtube rank) However, if a non-affiliated player is currently streaming CodecPvP content they are allowed to advertise the link to their stream.
Bypassing the Chat filter (Words that are not on the list)	Finding a way to use words that are filtered OR Using other vulgar terms that are not filtered but SHOULD be. This includes swearing in /msg or in /a. If the filter is down and players are saying words normally filtered, it will be considered a form of bypass and you will be warned and then punished.	“ur so gaa.yy!!” Gay is not a severity 2 word, but it’s still filtered. Using it to bypass is a severity 1 bypass. “What the frick Imfao” This message has both a word that is a replacement for a swear word and an abbreviation that could contain a swear word. However, we don’t punish for swear (word) substitutes of this nature. We do punish for letter or character substitution with the correct inappropriate context.	You will be warned, if you continue with the same behavior you will be muted.
Inappropriate Behavior	Saying something in chat that has sexual meaning, Intent/a threat to harm yourself, Joking about something maliciously, or	“B=====D ~ ~” “Any dirty boys wanna skype and be naughty?” “I want to rub your humps” All of these messages are of a sexual nature and have no place on the server.	You will be warned, if you continue with the same behavior you will be muted.

	generally inappropriate content.	"If I don't win I will cut myself" "After school tomorrow I'm going to kill myself :(" These messages show intent to hurt yourself, and are inappropriate to speak about on the server. "cancer is awesome!" "OMG BUSH DID 9/11" These messages are inappropriate because they are jokes about things that have occurred that people die/have died from. It can really offend some people. "deez nutz hur hur hur got eem" This message is inappropriate because, while the message itself is not inappropriate, the reference it refers to (which is really the only possible meaning of it) is not appropriate.
Unclarified Link	Any link that is NOT approved or unapproved, and NOT harmful!	"go to coolreligionsite.com it's a site about christianity!" In this scenario, the website is not on the approved or unapproved list but is not harmful. "go to facebook.com" The website COULD be harmful depending on where it is directed to, however generally Facebook is just unclarified. "go to xpaw.ru/mcstatus/" This website is fine and is NOT punishable in any way as it is on the approved links list.	You will be warned, if you continue with the same behavior you will be muted.
Rioting	Participating in an on going group riot on the server. THIS OFFENSE IS AN INSTANT SEVERITY 1 MUTE. NO WARNING NEEDS	"#BringBackHqteful" "DEMOTE HQTEFUL!" "Hi guys! Why should that person be demoted? o.o" "UNBAN _ BAN _!" These are all examples of things people might be rioting about as a group. Anyone whom	You will be muted instantly without a warning.

	TO BE GIVEN.	participates in the rioting (in red) would receive a punishment for it. You wouldn't punish the player in green as they are just asking a harmless question without trying to disturb the server in a malicious way.
